MINE AND SCHOOL UNDER NEW LAW

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, February 4.—Amended so that it will become a law in 90 days, instead of October 1st as originally drawn, the Green bill, providing run-of-mine pay for miners was passed by the lower House of the Legislature today by a vote of 102 to 8. The bill will go back to the Senate for concurrence. The amendment was offered by Representative Boggs of Belmont county, a coal operator, and also supported by Representative Tetlow of Columbiana Co., a miner. The amendment will do away with the necessity of an agreement between the miners and operators covering the period from April 1st to October 1st. It was reported that some of the operators favored the Boggs amendment because they wanted the run-of-mine system to become effective at once, so they could test the law in the courts.

The House at the forenoon session also passed a bill which provides for the standardization of public schools. According to the bill, all who hold a diploma from a first grade high school may be admitted to any college of the state without examination. It

Three times today the Democratic majority in the Senate withstood attempts to weaken the Lowery Rural School Supervision bill by amendments seeking to let counties decide whether they would have supervision or not and to substitute the Wayland bill to eliminate county supervision, and finally passed it by a vote of 23 to 8. The Senate started at two o'clock this afternoon to consider the Vonderheide Flood Protection bill.

FINISH TOMORROW

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 4.—After conferring with President Greenlund of the Senate, Speaker Charles L. Swain of the House, announced that the Legislature would finish its work tomorrow and adjourn until next Wednesday, when the finishing touches would be applied.

All bills will have been acted upon by tomorrow night.

WANT JOHN D. TO PAY $12,000,000 IN TAXES.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 4.—The local tax commission demanded of John D. Rockefeller that the oil king pay $12,690,000 taxes on his estimated $900,000,000 of personal property. Commissioners claim Rockefeller has just established his legal residence in East Cleveland under the new state tax law. The rate of taxation to which he is subject is $14.10 on each $1,000 of property. The demands made upon Mr. Rockefeller will be fought to a finish in the courts, according to Rockefeller's attorneys.

GREASER RAPS WILSON HARD

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, February 4.—President Wilson has dropped the false mask of the Puritan and declared himself the friend and protector of the rebels, is the seven-column headline in the El Plas over its account of President Wilson's action in raising the embargo on arms and munitions of war. The newspaper declares that President Wilson's motive, while alleged to be based on the high pretext of neutrality, originates really in commercial interests.

Bemidji, Minn., February 4.—Five men are known to be dead, several are missing and 13 seriously injured as the result of a fire which destroyed a three-story frame building at Kellier, 40 miles north of here today.

MAN OF MYSTERY AGAIN AT LARGE

The man of mystery, who lurked about the Jeffersonville locality for some time, and who was arrested and later taken to Xenia to face a charge of petit larceny, has been released, and is now at London or South Charleston.

The man's brother from Columbus appeared at Xenia and secured his release by paying the fine and all costs.

What his right name is, has not yet been learned. The man's brother stated that the man had never been in trouble, and that a prolonged spree was responsible for his trouble.

Sheriff Nelson is determined that the man shall not again lurk about this county and annoy the citizens as he did a few weeks ago.

FUNDS NEEDED TO CELEBRATE OUR LONG PEACE

By Associated Press.

London, England, February 4.—The British committee arranging for the celebration of the centenary of peace between the United States and England made a second appeal for funds at a meeting held today at the Mansion House. The meeting was under the patronage of the Lord Mayor and Duke of Teck was chairman. Speeches were made by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Premier Asquith and John A. Stewart, Secretary of the American committee. A cablegram was read from Secretary Bryan. Premier Asquith said that neither the British nor the American government was participating in the program of the celebration because both felt that the movement should be a spontaneous act of the people of the two countries.

KILL OFFICER AND ESCAPE

By Associated Press.

Waynesboro, Pa., February 4.—Abram and William Barnes, brothers, arrived in this city late last night from their home in the mountains, got into an altercation with the police, shot and killed Officer Daywalt and wounded a woman bystander. They fled to the mountains followed by a Sheriff's posse and were captured today, but not without a fight in which Abram was seriously wounded. The wounded man confessed to the killing of the policeman.

MAYOR OUSTS HIS OPPONENTS

By Associated Press.

Zanesville, Ohio, February 4.—Calling to his aid the entire night police force, Mayor Webster ousted the street cleaning department from headquarters at five o'clock this morning. New men were placed on the job amid scenes of violence. Several of the deposed men were jailed on charges of disorderly conduct.

MINERS ADJOURN

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 4.—After selecting St. Louis as the 1916 convention city and indorseing the policy of President John P. White to continue mine operations until every means has been exhausted to bring about an agreement for a new contract with the operators, the convention of the United Mine Workers of America adjourned. A flat increase of 5 cents a ton on a mine-run basis, a 10 per cent increase on all dead work, yardage and day labor and a half holiday on Saturday were adopted as the basis for work of the joint conference of miners and operators of the central competitive field, which meets in Philadelphia next Tuesday.

PERUVIAN PRESIDENT CAPTURED BY REBELS

By Associated Press.

Lima, Peru, Feb. 4.—The President of the Republic of Peru, Guillermo Billinghurst, was taken prisoner today by military revolutionists. The rebels suddenly attacked the presidential quarters this morning. General Enrique Varela, Premier and Minister of War, was killed in the sharp fight which ensued.

Dr. Augusto Durand, a revolutionary leader, whose arrest was sought by the police yesterday, took possession of the palace. It is generally believed that he will at once organize a new government.

In the vicinity of San Pedro Church a civilian bystander was killed by a bullet. Great alarm prevails throughout the city.

Peru's sudden revolutionary trouble is due principally to President Billinghurst's efforts to place the finances of his country on a sound basis. The scheme for doing this involved strict economy throughout the public service and naturally proved unpopular, particularly among office holders who saw their salaries and estimates pruned with a merciless hand.

At the end of last year, Congress refused to vote the budget, and President Billinghurst issued a decree declaring that the old estimates would remain in force until the end of 1914. Petitions from many of the provinces were presented to the President, asking dissolution of Congress.

President Billinghurst is the son of an Englishman but was born in Peru. He is about 55 years old.

WILL BE EXILED

Lima, Peru, February 4.—Bulletin.—President Billinghurst was taken by the rebels as a prisoner to Callao, from which port he will be sent into exile in some foreign country.

WE STAND AGHAST

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., February 4.—The military uprising in Peru with the arrest of President Billinghurst came as a complete surprise to officials and diplomatic authorities here, recent advices having given no indication of serious unrest. The president's last message to the Peruvian Congress appeared to present an exceptionally favorable condition of affairs.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., February 4.—The right to ship arms and ammunition across the American boundary into Mexico through the regular channels of commerce today was extended to both the forces of the Huerta government and the Constitutionalists—a situation unprecedented since the first outbreak of international hostilities in that respect in November, 1910. Instructions went forth to custom agents of the American government along the border, as well as to the army officers in charge of the border patrol notifying them of the proclamation by President Wilson raising the embargo on arms.

GOODS TO MOVE

By Associated Press.

New Orleans, February 4.—Dealers in war material here today began to prepare supplies for shipment to rebels in northern Mexico, as a result of the decision of President Wilson to lift the embargo on shipments of munitions of war into the southern republic. About 100 men were working at warehouses packing rifles, cartridges and machine guns.

EXCHANGE MEN FIGHT CLIPPING OF WINGS

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—With representatives of the New York Stock Exchange appearing in opposition to the measure and a large number of witnesses ready to urge its enactment, the Senate committee on Banking and Currency today began hearings on the Owen bill, designed to prohibit the use of the mails, telegraph and telephone lines for the furtherance of unlawful or harmful stock exchange transactions. Samuel Untermyer, of New York, of New York, called at the personal invitation of Chairman Owens, was the chief witness in advocacy of the bill. He cites numerous court opinions and recommendations of the house committee which favorably reported a similar bill in the 62nd Congress.

LARGE CROWDS BRAVE RAIN STORM TO ATTEND SERVICES

The rain storm last night failed to decrease the interest in the services of the simultaneous campaign, and large crowds ignored the inclement weather and made their way to the various churches where the services are still in progress.

The executive committee is expecting some remarkable results this week, and Secretary Zaner is confident that the total of confessions and church additions for city and county will pass the one thousand mark before the crusade is ended.

At the Christian church last night a large audience was recorded. Following a stirring song program, in which a charming feature was a solo by Mrs. Blackwell, Rev. Hostetter delivered one of his characteristic sermons on the power and influence that shall come to the righteous man. "Had there been even ten righteous men in the city of Sodom," he said, "that great community would never have been destroyed. The power of one really consecrated Christian, with the spirit of God in his heart, is something which we cannot measure."

Two more conversions last night

raised the total at the Christian church to 132. The rite of baptism was given to a number of candidates at the close of the evening's service. Mrs. H. C. Boblitt, of Columbus, was present at the service last night, having come down to spend a couple of days with her husband in the meetings here.

The splendid interest at the Grace M. E. church promises to produce some stirring results at the meetings at that church this week. Mr. Ross preached an effective sermon last night that added to the conversions of the campaign, which are now approaching the hundred mark.

The Baptist church also bids fair to keep up its splendid records this week. Last night increased the record of confessions, with no indication of any slackening of the interest. Mr. West gave an appealing sermon, which made a profound impression.

It is announced that the speaker at the men's mass meeting next Sunday afternoon will be Prof. Lorenz, of Dayton, who is known as one of the most stirring speakers to men in this section of the state.

VILLA SAYS WAR IS OVER

Paso, Tex., Feb. 4.—General Villa, when told of President Wilson's decision to raise the embargo on arms and ammunition, said: "I want to thank the United States for its action. Wilson's decision does him honor, for it does justice to Mexico. With plenty of ammunition at the command of the Constitutionalists the revolution will sweep Huerta's forces from Mexico in a short while. The war is practically over. We could have been in Mexico City by now if we had possessed all the ammunition we needed," he said, "as it was, we had to capture most of our weapons and cartridges from the federales."

United States border patrol troops will remain stationed along the international line when the embargo is raised by the president, according to General Hugh L. Scott. He says that the troops will be kept on the border to prevent marauding parties from crossing and to prevent any invasions of Mexico by armed forces.

CHIEF CANADAY OUTLINES POSITION

"I intend to give this city a business administration. There are no strings on me, and I will show no favors and expect none," said Chief of Police James Canaday, of Xenia, who took his office Saturday morning.

"The laws and ordinances of this city are going to be enforced. There is no use having them if they are simply dead issues on the books," he continued. "I do not mean that I am going to turn the city upside down, or anything of that sort, all in a day," he said. "Everybody is going to get a square deal from me."

VIVID PORTRAYAL OF "QUO VADIS"

History, romance and tragedy are blended into one awe inspiring and thrilling ensemble in George Kleins photo-drama production of Henry Sienkiewicz' justly celebrated story "Quo Vadis" which will be presented at the Palace Theater for the first time Thursday.

This is the most marvelous achievement yet in photo drama and created a sensation at the Astor Theater in New York City, also at Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston where the pictures were presented to enormous crowds at every performance. For scope, magnitude, extravagant splendor and liberality, these pictures have never been equaled and they carry with them an appeal to every community. They entertain and instruct at the same time and accomplish as much for religion as they do for study.

The story of Vinitius' love for the lovely Christian maid Lygia is related with remarkable fidelity and the companion picture of his friend Petronius' great passion for his handsome slave, Eunice, is also faithfully shown. The trials of the early Christian martyrs, the vain and cruel temperament of the wicked tyrant Nero and his courtiers which were so graphically drawn by the author are illustrated on the screen with commendable veracity and even those who have never read the book can comprehend the whole story from the pictures. Episodes that stir the mind to wonder and make the blood surge rapidly around the heart, pictorialized with amazing truth. The gladiator combats, the chariot races, the burning of Rome, the devouring of the Christians by the lions, the stirring conquest of the wild bull by the giant slave Ursus, the gathering of the Christians in the catacombs and the appearance of the Savior to Peter are all shown with wonderful truth of detail and from a spectacle so stupendous no one can afford to miss it.

GREAT NUMBER OF IMMIGRANTS

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—In his first annual report just made public, W. B. Wilson, Secretary of the Department of the Interior, states that during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, 1,197,872 immigrants came to this country, an increase of 359,720 over the previous year. Of those 986,355 were between 14 and 44 years of age, 147,158 were under 14, and 64,379 were 45 or over. Twenty-six per cent of the aliens admitted were totally illiterate. The bulk of the immigration came from the countries of southern and eastern Europe, only 15 per cent coming from northern and western Europe.

While the immigration increased 43 per cent during the last year, the number of exclusions of arriving aliens increased only 24 per cent. That was due, the report indicates, to the financial and physical inability of the Bureau of Immigration properly to supervise the great number of arriving aliens.

Under existing arrangements of the 6,859 Japanese who applied for admission during the year 88 were excluded.

A Musical Club of High Standards

The Cecilians, Washington's well known musical club, celebrated its 25th anniversary yesterday. It is seldom that a club can look back upon a quarter of a century of more telling work than can this organization.

While the personnel of the club has changed and but few of the charter members are now enrolled, the same purpose, the same high standards which led to its organization, have incalculated all subsequent members, and it is today a club composed of Washington women who are leading musical artists of our city, and which has played a large part in raising musical standards.

From its first organization the Cecilians have devoted themselves to musical culture for the town as well as for themselves. Their club work has been devoted to the finest composers and their programs culled from the world of music the choicest gems of the masters. They have been absolutely intolerant of anything but the best.

While improving their own talents, they also lent every effort to the encouragement of good music in our city; to the bringing of genuine artists to the concert platform, and to a criticism, which, while kindly, extolled the fine and eliminated the ordinary.

Once or twice a year this club has invited outside guests and presented a program which has never failed to be in the nature of a concert treat and has given to those not having had the advantage of musical study an incentive to cultivate the love of good music.

Washington has been very proud of the wide reputation she has had as a musical center and the talented artists that have achieved fame by no means merely local.

It has been the privilege and pleasure of this club to give added prestige to her musical renown.

The Day of Practical Religion

There seems to be a spirit of practical religion abroad in the land—the kind of religion that is “up and doing”, rather than a passive religion given to retrospection and meditation.

There is hardly a paper published but calls attention to some project of helpfulness for a cause or for humanity.

This week in the city of St. Louis, Mo., plans were completed by a committee of “The Men and Millions Movement” to enter into a campaign to raise six million dollars for missionary work. R. A. Long, of Kansas City, has pledged $1,000,000 on condition that $5,000,000 will be raised for the same purpose.

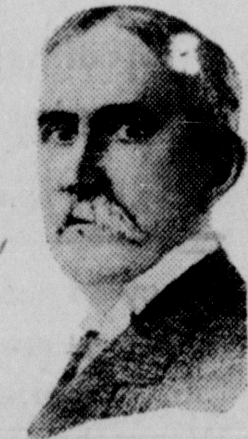

Right at home in our capital city of Columbus, “The Brotherhood” convention has been lending mighty impetus to the Forward Movement.

Campaigns for righteousness, for civic betterment, for moral uplift, are in active operation wherever the eye turns.

It is the day of active reform, of practical religious revival and the spirit is contagious, sweeping over our country with menace to the quiet selfishness which much prefers to be left undisturbed.

Taft Never Would Have Recognized Huerta's Claim to Presidency

By FRANKLIN MAC VEAGH, Secretary of Treasury in Taft Administration

I BELIEVE that President Wilson has been entirely RIGHT IN REFUSING TO RECOGNIZE HUERTA. President Taft, had he continued in office, would never have recognized Huerta's claim to the presidency of Mexico. I am convinced that I express the sentiment of the entire Taft administration in saying that.

Wilson has adopted a well defined policy toward Mexico. He appears to be following that policy consistently. All the powers seem to be working in aid of his plan of waiting. The part of the people of this nation is to support their president.

ironin' and bakin',
The mendin' maybe;
Or I'd have to run up 'cause the
baby was wakin',
And cryin' for me;
When the girls and the lads would
be strollin' come May-time
In the moonlight,
With a joke how they'd be a sad
sight for the daytime.
Their love-locks turned white
With the fall o' the blossoms the orchard was sheddin',
I waited inside!
Oh, the nearest I've ever come near
to a weddin',
Was dressin' the bride;
And the nearest to home was the hob
and the oven—
The day's bite and sup;
And the nearest I've come to the
children was lovin'
And takin' 'em up!

Mills Municipal Ownership Bond Bill Passes House.

HARD BATTLE PRECEDES VOTE

Advocates of the Measure Will Attempt to Have It Restored to Its Original Form by the Senate and In Conference—State Bank Bill Goes to the Governor—Legislative Review.

Columbus, O., Feb. 4.—After it had been amended almost beyond recognition, the Mills municipal ownership bond bill was passed by the house and sent to the senate, where the Cleveland delegation will attempt to restore it and then try to put the bill through by resort to a conference committee.

It was a clear defeat for the administration, for while Governor Cox did not assume responsibility for the bill, it was admitted by house leaders he did everything he could to bring about the adoption of an amendment restricting the bill to the four cities now having home rule charters, Cleveland, Dayton, Springfield and Middletown, and such others as may adopt charters, an amendment which it was thought would save the bill.

Mr. Edling of Wayne, a farmer, was selected to offer this amendment, in hopes of carrying the farmer members with him, but they wouldn't have it. A plea by Herbert Bigelow that it would defeat the adoption of the Cincinnati charter by arraying against the charter the public utility interests with a big corruption fund, sealed the fate of the amendment, which was lost by a vote of 50 to 58.

The influence of John F. Kramer of Richland, the strongest personal influence in the house, was shown to be more potent than the state administration of his own party when his amendment, making bonds for purchasing utilities a lien on the utility only and not on the general credit of the municipality, as the bill provided, was adopted by 69 to 39.

There went into it, too, amendments by Mr. Snyder of Hamilton, making mandatory the law permitting the state utilities commission to prescribe a uniform system of accounting for both municipally-owned and privately-owned utilities, and by Mr. Reid of Fayette, inserting the precaution that nothing in the bill should be held to repeal the Smith 1 per cent tax law.

As the bill goes to the senate, bonds to acquire a utility must be redeemed by the earnings of the utility, a condition rendering their sale to bond buyers practically prohibitive. It was said the only way to float a utility issue would be to sell the bonds in small denominations to citizens, who might buy them out of civic pride.

The bill was passed, 83 to 26.

State Bank Bill Passed.

The Guthery house bill, permitting state banks to become members of the federal banking system, was unanimously passed by the senate. Senator Mooney's amendment denying all banks the right to act as administrators, executors, trustees or registrars of stocks and bonds, was incorporated in the bill. Another amendment, by Senator Moore of Jefferson county, reducing the reserve funds of savings banks from 15 to 10 per cent of their total deposits, was also included in the bill.

The senate by a vote of 19 to 10 reversed a ruling by Lieutenant Governor Greenlund to the effect that the Moore amendment was not germane to the call of the governor.

To repair the failure of the legislature last winter in not surrounding the referendum with proper safeguards, the house passed the Way-gandt bill practically without opposition. The vote was 99 to 2. The bill goes to the governor for approval when the senate concurs in amendments.

Supported by Republican members, Senator Hudson of Scioto succeeded, by a vote of 22 to 7, in securing an amendment to the school supervision bill providing for uniform textbooks in the grades by the county unit. The county superintendent and the district superintendents are to constitute a commission to prepare uniform texts for the entire county, contracts to be in force for five years. The original bill required only uniform texts in the district unit.

A large party from Fairfield county visited the farm of Jesse Hegler, Esq., a few days ago for the purpose of looking over his fine stock. The herds of Messrs. Hegler, Thos. Kirk and A. DeWitt, are attracting the attention of stockmen in various sections of the country. They are worthy of notice.

NEWSY NOTES

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

The extent of the new county, state and municipal civil service law is shown by the number of examinations to be held this month. Tests for infirmity and children's home superintendents and matrons will be held at various towns on the 17th. Examination for institutional matrons and women attendants will be held at Athens on the 14th. Deputy Game Warden will be examined on the 16th at several points, including Columbus and Marietta. State highway inspectors and male institutional attendants will be examined at Columbus Feb. 25th.

Ed. M. Tharp, editor of Business and Business Men for the Ohio State Journal, commenting on the recent action of the United States Court at Chicago, throwing the Central Union Telephone Company into the hands of receivers, claims the action means no change in the policy of the company to the public or its general conduct of its business.

A crowd of over 6000 people saw photo play “Creation,” at two performances at Music Hall, Cincinnati Sunday, the attendance being the largest in the history of the building while large crowds were turned away. Police had difficulty in handling the throng.

At the big Pre-Lenten Ball, given by the Knights Templar at the Hotel Gibson, Cincinnati, Feb. 20th, will be tried a new wrinkle in dancing. This is to be continuous music, in other words, a never stop Marathon in the ball room.

Mayor Karb, of Columbus, has issued orders to the Safety Director in writing to allow hereafter dice games in cigar stores and other places. The Mayor claims his orders are simply to enable the owners of the stores to stimulate business. The Mayor also ordered that minors be excluded from play.

It is stated by Express authorities that the different companies' offices in over 5000 towns and small cities in the United States will be combined. The effect of the parcel post on the companies, it was announced, is responsible for the measure, and a big saving will be made by the enforced economy.

CLARK COUNTY SHERIFF STOPS BAKER MOTOR BUS

Complaint Over Damage to Roads Again Results in the Arrest of Driver of Bus—Fayette County Officials Have Taken No Action on Affair. Although Some Complaint Is Made—Mr. Baker to Furnish Crushed Stone and Place It Upon Roads.

The Baker motor bus, running between Jeffersonville and South Charleston, has been meeting with some opposition at the hands of the Clarke county officials, and Tuesday the driver was again arrested for damaging the roads.

So far no action has been taken by Fayette county officials, although complaint still arises over damage to roads, and the condition of one road became so bad that a different route was chosen to South Charleston. Mr. Baker has purchased quite a large shipment of crushed stone to repair the roads, it is claimed.

Wednesday the bus left Jeffersonville as usual, but, according to report, the Clark county officials state that they will cause the arrest of the driver each day the bus travels the roads while they are in condition to be damaged.

Wednesday's Springfield Sun contains the following article regarding the trouble:

"As the driver of the 9,000-pound motor truck which runs between South Charleston and Jeffersonville started on his regular trip yesterday, he found himself in the grip of the law as represented by Deputy Sheriff 'Cas' Drake. Violation of the state law pertaining to the weight of vehicles which operate on a public highway was the reason for his detention.

"Sentiment on the question of whether or not the truck is to operate is about evenly divided at South Charleston, some maintaining that the damage done by the vehicle far exceeds its value to the community, while others maintain that damage is practically negligible quantity. Enforcement of the highway law throughout the state has depended in the past largely upon the state of the road, and the demand of local public opinion.

"The driver of the South Charleston-Jeffersonville motor truck was arrested a short time ago and his trial before Mayor Erwin set for Tuesday. George W. Baker, owner of the South Charleston-Springfield Traction company which operates the truck, said that if the county commissioners and the trustees of

Madison township would view the road and see the car in operation and find that the running of the car damaged the road he would stop running the car in bad weather.

"On the strength of that statement Prosecutor Ballard asked that the case be continued until February 9 at 2 o'clock so that the trustees and commissioners could view the road and see the car in operation.

"Today's difficulty makes a total of four different cases against Baker, involving a total fine, if the maximum is assessed on each count, of $200. Baker claims that the car does not damage the road, while the people along the road claim that the use of this car is practically destroying one of the finest pikes in the country."

FORGERS FORCED TO LEAVE THE CITY

John Curtis and Leonard Wilson, the two colored men from Baltimore, who forged a check for $2.50 in this city Saturday night, and who later gave themselves up to the chief of police, were arraigned before Mayor Coffey late Tuesday afternoon, and readily entered pleas of guilty to the charge placed against them.

As the one whose name was used on the check, and the one who cashed it did not care to prosecute the two offenders, Mayor Coffey decided that he would save the county the heavy cost of trying the pair, and he gave them a suspended sentence and ordered them out of the city at once.

They lost no time in moving, and were kept under the surveillance of the police until they were outside the city limits.

BLIND RELIEF FUND IN FAYETTE COUNTY

When the litigation over the paying of funds by Blind Relief Commissions, or out of the Blind Relief Fund, the sum of $2776.21 which is now in the fund in this county, will become available, but until further authority is received by County Auditor Henkle, the fund must remain untouched.

The last blind relief was paid October 1st, and so far the only installment missed is that which would have become payable in January had not the courts ruled against the blind relief.

NO TRACE OF THE POSTOFFICE ROBBERS

So far no further trace of the yeggs who cracked the safe of the Jamestown postoffice Monday night has been found.

It is believed the crooks were from Columbus, and that they may yet be apprehended while trying to dispose of the stamps in that city. The Columbus officials have been notified to make a search for the yeggs.

Final checking up of the stamps and money stolen places the value of stamps at $300 and the money at $50.

The matter of using helmets was brought to the attention of Chief Moore by Safety Director Dial.

Washington is one of the few cities in Ohio where the police have not worn the regulation helmet, and the claim it made that dignity is added by wearing helmet and uniform as all regular policemen are forced to do in the larger cities.

The claim has been made by some previous officers that a policeman in a city this size can work to better advantage when he is garbed much the same as an ordinary citizen.

HASTENS CRISIS IN MEXICAN WARS

Wilson Lifts the Embargo On Shipment of Arms.

MEANS HUERTA'S OVERTHROW

Held by the President That the Embargo Stood in the Way of Establishing Lawful and Orderly Government in Mexico—Charge O'Shaughnessy Likely To Be Handed His Passports.

Washington, Feb. 4. — President Wilson issued an executive order lifting the embargo on the shipment of arms from the United States into Mexico. This means that Carranza and the Constitutionalists will now have full access to the supply of arms and ammunition in markets on this side of the Rio Grande. Steps already have been taken by the Constitutionalists to start the flow of war munitions across the border.

The immediate effect of the president's action probably will be more widespread disorder and greater bloodshed in Mexico, especially in the northern states, but as viewed here it also marks a decided step toward the final overthrow of Huerta.

The president's order will tend to hasten the crisis in the Mexican situation. It would cause no surprise if the resentment of Huerta leads him immediately to hand Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American charge, his passports. The president in promulgating the order made it clear that he was actuated chiefly by the conviction that the present prohibition against shipments of munitions of war to the Constitutionalists stood in the way of establishing orderly and lawful government in the southern republic.

By many here it is believed that the next logical step of the Wilson administration will be a formal recognition of the Carranza government, provided the rebel leader's followers are able to establish themselves in Mexico City.

President's Statement.

This was the statement issued by the president:

"The executive orders under which the exportation of arms and ammunition into Mexico is forbidden was a departure from the accepted practices of neutrality—a deliberate departure from those practices under a well-considered joint resolution of congress—determined upon in circumstances which have now ceased to exist. It was intended to discourage incipient revolts against the regularly constituted authorities of Mexico. Since that order was issued the circumstances of the case have undergone a radical change.

"There is now no constitutional government in Mexico and the existence of this order hinders and delays the very thing the government of the United States is now insisting upon, namely, that Mexico shall be left free to settle her own affairs and as soon as possible put them upon a constitutional footing by her own force and counsel. The order is therefore rescinded."

AMERICANS FLEE

Mexico City, Feb. 4.—Many of the Americans resident here, on learning of President Wilson's decision to raise the embargo on the exportation of arms from the United States to Mexico, left the capital for the eastern coast. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, charge d'affaires of the American embassy, was instructed to acquaint foreigners of the action of the Washington government, but he was not told to break the news to Provisional President Huerta, whose notification came from the Mexican embassy at Washington.

President Huerta and his cabinet were silent on the lifting of the embargo, though the admission was made at the palace that the news of President Wilson's contemplated action had been received. "What difference will it make?" Huerta asked several days ago when rumors were current that President Wilson planned such action. "The rebels have less money than I have to purchase arms and ammunition."

YELLOWSTONE PARK LARGEST IN EXISTENCE

The Yellowstone National Park is a public pleasure ground maintained by the United States government for the enjoyment of the people and the brown bears of the nation.

The park is typically American because of its size. It is the largest park open to the public anywhere. Many nations could not have a park of this size unless they borrowed some territory from their neighbors. It has about 3,500 square miles, and is not fenced in. This is carelessness of course and leads to some trouble, but the government has never had time to dig post holes.

The Yellowstone Park is situated in the northwest corner of Wyoming, about 125 miles from the center of population, including the Pullman fare. One might think from its inaccessibility that it was a postoffice, but in this case the government has some excuse. The park is where it is because it was impossible to move the scenery of which it is composed to some more centrally located spot.

Scenery and natural curiosities are the strong points of the Yellowstone park. It contains several mountain ranges, a plateau, a large number of canyons, a large lake, a 300-foot waterfall and a magnificent collection of geysers. In fact the park has a monopoly of geysers in this country, and geyser lovers who do not like the price of admission are at liberty to jump off the dock.

The Yellowstone park is 11,000 feet high in some spots and in others reaches so far down that the water in the springs is red hot and smells of sulphur. Watching the geyser throw water at the dog star, boiling eggs in the mud pots and escaping from the tame bear, catamounts, mountain lions and rattlesnakes are the favorite occupations of the tourists. Guns are not allowed in the park, and the bears and buffalo are so tame that they will frequently walk up to a shivering stranger and attempt to borrow a chew of tobacco from him.

The Yellowstone park has the grandest and wierdest scenery on this continent, and if it were New York the government could make millions by charging admission. It also contains another great American curiosity—good roads. Automobileists who have traveled mostly in Illinois and Missouri frequently go to the park to see these roads alone. George Fitch in Cleveland Leader.

Better Than Calomel

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets. These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lasy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O. adv

DENSE SMOKE IS CONSUMED

By the recent installation of shaker grates under the boilers of the F. Rothrock laundry, the dense smoke which resulted from the use of old style herring bone grates, has been eliminated to a marked degree. By using the new grates a much larger percentage of the available water power is used with the result that the heating of the boilers is made less expensive and the dense black smoke no longer pours from the smokestack. For a short time after coal is fed to the boilers smoke of a dark grayish color pours from the smokestack, and after the first few minutes smoke is hardly noticeable. Mr. Rothrock expects that within a short time the amount of fuel saved will more than pay the cost of installing the shaker grates. The use of the shaker grates in this city is expected to become general and relief afforded to the citizens who have been complaining of smoke stacks located in the residential districts of the city.

EXCLUSION AMENDMENT IS RECALLED

Washington, Feb. 4.—As a result of influence brought to bear by President Wilson and his advisers, the danger of Japanese exclusion legislation was avoided for the present. The house by an overwhelming vote recalled the amendment which it incorporated Monday in the Burnett immigration bill providing for exclusion of Asiatics, including the Japanese. Republicans joined with Democrats in pleading with the house to ignore the exclusion question, in order that the administration might proceed with its diplomatic negotiations with some hope that the differences between the two countries would be adjusted. The house thereupon reversed itself, and it is predicted that as a result no effort will be made in congress at this time to bring the exclusion question forward.

LITTLE STORIES ABOUT OHIO
BY CHARLES E. CHIDESTER

OHIO WOMEN ARE MILITANT.
Modern English militant suffragette methods of combating distasteful theories were employed by Ohio women as early as 1858
In that year Berlin Heights, Erie county, was attracting state and nation-wide attention as a Socialistic or Free Love society center. Three separate and distinct communities were established, each with official publication. Frank Barry was issuing "The Age of Freedom," in 1858, when, through some of his utterances he incurred the displeasure of 20 women in the village who, waiting until Barry had arrived at the postoffice with an edition to be mailed, set upon him, seized his pack and burned the entire issue on the public square.
The Berlin Center community was one of many which made Ohio the testing ground of Socialistic and Communistic colonies.
In 1844 the Fouriarte association was formed, brought three tracts of land on the Ohio in Clermont, and put up buildings. After two years the members were no better off and the association in debt and it dissolved.
A spiritualistic community rose out of the ruins of its predecessor. John A. Wattles was at its head with 100 followers. In 1847 a great flood inundated its buildings and 17 lives were lost ruining the enterprise.
One of the most successful was the communistic village of Utopia, organized by Henry Jernagman, one of the Fourierites, on Utopian principles. The people lived happily for some time.
The Zoar community, at Zoar, founded by Germans, existed up to about 10 years ago, when the younger generation became dissatisfied and wrecked the institution's ideals and purposes.

In Social Circles

The beautiful home of Mrs. Nina Craig was the scene of a brilliant gathering of musicians and music lovers Tuesday afternoon when the "Cecilians" celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary by presenting a choice program to a hundred invited guests.

Mrs. Eva Craig, president of the club, extended gracious welcome, expressing the pleasure with which the Cecilians set aside one of their meetings in recognition of the twenty-fifth milestone.

The beautiful program met with the enthusiastic approval of the guests, who indulged in hand clapping to an extent unusual in a feminine audience.

Mrs. Winnie W. Shoop sang a group of "Bird Songs", comprising "The Wood Pigeon, the Starling, the Yellow Hammer, the Wren, the Owl," by Lizzie Lehman. Mrs. Shoop's lovely, sympathetic voice brought out all the beauties of this unique group of songs, dainty, piquant and gay.

Mrs. Fannie Ballard gave to a piano solo, "Ich Liebe Dich", Greig, most artistic interpretation, stamped with the distinctive personality and delicacy of touch, which are always features of her renditions.

Two charming songs were contributed by Miss Edith Gardner. The first, "O, Say Have You Seen Her", Catraccolo, was brilliant in style, showing the range and flexibility of the singer's voice, and the second, "A Song My Mother Sang," replete with plaintive strains, and sung with exquisite tenderness.

A quartet of the club's vocal artists sang a choral ballad, "The Lake of the Dismal Swamp," Alexander Matthews.

Mrs. Nina Craig prefaced it with a graphic description of the "Lake of the Dismal Swamp," its Indian legends and poetry, with their primitive understanding of the triumph of good over hate.

The choral ballad was sung by Mesdames Lona G. Huguey, Lillie Davis, sopranos; Mesdames Mary Burgett, Ida Pine, contraltos; Mrs. Sina L. Murray, accompanist.

It is an amazingly difficult musical work, written in minor key, primitive and weird in melody, with the ever recurring Indian note, and required an unusual amount of study to bring it to the artistic rendition, given by the singers.

Mrs. Huguey was suffering from a severe cold, which, however, did not prevent her brilliant soprano from rising superbly in the high notes. The ballad worked up to an effective climax, embodying the mystery of the lake, the spirit of the morass, and the tragedy of the lovers, floating forever in their white canoe by the light of the fiery lamp.

The music was peculiar in quality, but had in it much of beauty.

Mrs. Murray had very difficult piano work, both in an ambitious prelude, interweaving the motif, with its weird melodies, and in the accompaniment which gave admirable support to the singers.

The guests lingered in social pleasure after the program.

Hazel Ellison, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Ellison, celebrated her fifth birthday Tuesday afternoon with a delightful children's party. Owing to the rainy afternoon only nine youngsters responded to the invitations, but they had a merry time with music, donkey contest, and games. Toward the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Ellison served dainty refreshments with a beautiful birthday cake, blazing with five candles, in the center of the table.

Miss Pauline West received the prize in the contest. The small hostess received beautiful and useful presents.

There was a good attendance and splendid program Tuesday night at the Browning club, the Department of Household Economics, Miss Clara Thurston, chairman, in charge.

Mrs. Reba Bay treated of "The Prospects for Electrical Cookery," in a very interesting paper.

"Starve the Fly," was the subject of a fine paper, teeming with practical information in regard to the fly as an enemy of health by Mrs. Jennie Bailey.

A third delightful paper was presented by Miss Clara B. Thurston, her subject, "King Mackerel Fishing in Florida."

The club women greatly enjoyed a piano duet, beautifully played by

EARLY MORNING FIRE IN RESIDENCE

About six o'clock Wednesday morning a small fire occurred in the double house owned by Mrs. Sharp Davies just east of Lewis street on Market, but the motor fire engine was soon upon the scene and the blaze was soon extinguished.

The fire started on the first floor of the house and burned a place in the floor and along one side of the room, entailing a loss which was adjusted by C. A. Cave for $39. It is supposed that the fire started from brands from an open grate, in which a fire had been kindled the previous day.

Monday of this week the property was sold to B. C. Mace, but the deed had not been drawn up.

MINE AND SCHOOL UNDER NEW LAW

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, February 4.—Amended so that it will become a law in 90 days, instead of October 1st as originally drawn, the Green bill, providing run-of-mine pay for miners was passed by the lower House of the Legislature today by a vote of 102 to 8. The bill will go back to the Senate for concurrence. The amendment was offered by Representative Boggs of Belmont county, a coal operator, and also supported by Representative Tetlow of Columbiana Co., a miner. The amendment will do away with the necessity of an agreement between the miners and operators covering the period from April 1st to October 1st. It was reported that some of the operators favored the Boggs amendment because they wanted the run-of-mine system to become effective at once, so they could test the law in the courts.

The House at the forenoon session also passed a bill which provides for the standardization of public schools. According to the bill, all who hold a diploma from a first grade high school may be admitted to any college of the state without examination. It

Three times today the Democratic majority in the Senate withstood attempts to weaken the Lowery Rural School Supervision bill by amendments seeking to let counties decide whether they would have supervision or not and to substitute the Wayland bill to eliminate county supervision, and finally passed it by a vote of 23 to 8. The Senate started at two o'clock this afternoon to consider the Vonderheide Flood Protection bill.

FINISH TOMORROW

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 4.—After conferring with President Greenlund of the Senate, Speaker Charles L. Swain of the House, announced that the Legislature would finish its work tomorrow and adjourn until next Wednesday, when the finishing touches would be applied.

All bills will have been acted upon by tomorrow night.

WANT JOHN D. TO PAY $12,000,000 IN TAXES.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 4.—The local tax commission demanded of John D. Rockefeller that the oil king pay $12,690,000 taxes on his estimated $900,000,000 of personal property. Commissioners claim Rockefeller has just established his legal residence in East Cleveland under the new state tax law. The rate of taxation to which he is subject is $14.10 on each $1,000 of property. The demands made upon Mr. Rockefeller will be fought to a finish in the courts, according to Rockefeller's attorneys.

GREASER RAPS WILSON HARD

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, February 4.—"President Wilson has dropped the false mask of the Puritan and declared himself the friend and protector of the rebels," is the seven-column headline in the El Pais over its account of President Wilson's action in raising the embargo on arms and munitions of war. The newspaper declares that President Wilson's motive, while alleged to be based on the high pretext of neutrality, originates really in commercial interests.

The man of mystery, who lurked about the Jeffersonville locality for some time, and who was arrested and later taken to Xenia to face a charge of petit larceny, has been released, and is now at London or South Charleston.

The man's brother from Columbus appeared at Xenia and secured his release by paying the fine and all costs.

What his right name is, has not yet been learned. The man's brother stated that the man had never been in trouble, and that a prolonged spree was responsible for his trouble.

Sheriff Nelson is determined that the man shall not again lurk about this county and annoy the citizens as he did a few weeks ago.

By Associated Press.

London, England, February 4.—The British committee arranging for the celebration of the centenary of peace between the United States and England made a second appeal for funds at a meeting held today at the Mansion House. The meeting was under the patronage of the Lord Mayor and Duke of Teck was chairman. Speeches were made by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Premier Asquith and John A. Stewart, Secretary of the American committee. A cablegram was read from Secretary Bryan. A flat increase of 5 cents a ton on a mine-run basis, a 10 per cent increase on all dead work, yardage and day labor and a half holiday on Saturday were adopted as the basis for work of the joint conference of miners and operators of the central competitive field, which meets in Philadelphia next Tuesday.

EXCHANGE MEN FIGHT CLIPPING OF WINGS

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—With representatives of the New York Stock Exchange appearing in opposition to the measure and a large number of witnesses ready to urge its enactment, the Senate committee on Banking and Currency today began hearings on the Owen bill, designed to prohibit the use of the mails, telegraph and telephone lines for the furtherance of unlawful or harmful stock exchange transactions. Samuel Untermyer, of New York, of New York, called at the personal invitation of Chairman Owens, was the chief witness in advocacy of the bill. He cites numerous court opinions and recommendations of the house committee which favorably reported a similar bill in the 62nd Congress.

PERUVIAN PRESIDENT CAPTURED BY REBELS

By Associated Press.

Lima, Peru, Feb. 4.—The President of the Republic of Peru, Guillermo Billinghurst, was taken prisoner today by military revolutionists. The rebels suddenly attacked the presidential quarters this morning. General Enrique Varela, Premier and Minister of War, was killed in the sharp fight which ensued.

Dr. Augusto Durand, a revolutionary leader, whose arrest was sought by the police yesterday, took possession of the palace. It is generally believed that he will at once organize a new government.

In the vicinity of San Pedro Church a civilian bystander was killed by a bullet. Great alarm prevails throughout the city.

Peru's sudden revolutionary trouble is due principally to President Billinghurst's efforts to place the finances of his country on a sound basis. The scheme for doing this involved strict economy throughout the public service and naturally proved unpopular, particularly among office holders who saw their salaries and estimates pruned with a merciless hand.

At the end of last year, Congress refused to vote the budget, and President Billinghurst issued a decree declaring that the old estimates would remain in force until the end of 1914. Petitions from many of the provinces were presented to the President, asking dissolution of Congress.

President Billinghurst is the son of an Englishman but was born in Peru. He is about 55 years old.

WILL BE EXILED

Lima, Peru, February 4.—Bulletin.—President Billinghurst was taken by the rebels as a prisoner to Callao, from which port he will be sent into exile in some foreign country.

The president's last message to the Peruvian Congress appeared to present an exceptionally favorable condition of affairs.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. LARGE CROWDS BRAVE RAIN STORM TO ATTEND SERVICES

The rain storm last night failed to decrease the interest in the services of the simultaneous campaign, and large crowds ignored the inclement weather and made their way to the various churches where the services are still in progress.

The executive committee is expecting some remarkable results this week, and Secretary Zane is confident that the total of confessions and church additions for city and county will pass the one thousand mark before the crusade is ended.

At the Christian church last night a large audience was recorded. Following a stirring song program, in which a charming feature was a solo by Mrs. Blackwell. Rev. Hostetler delivered one of his characteristic sermons on the power and influence that shall come to the righteous man. "Had there been even ten righteous men in the city of Sodom," he said, "that great community would never have been destroyed. The power of one really consecrated Christian, with the spirit of God in his heart, is something which we cannot measure."

Two more conversions last night

raised the total at the Christian church to 132. The rite of baptism was given to a number of candidates at the close of the evening's service. Mrs. H. C. Boblitt, of Columbus, was present at the service last night, having come down to spend a couple of days with her husband in the meetings here.

The splendid interest at the Grace M. E. church promises to produce some stirring results at the meetings at that church this week. Mr. Ross preached an effective sermon last night that added to the conversions of the campaign, which are now approaching the hundred mark.

The Baptist church also bids fair to keep up its splendid records this week. Last night increased the record of confessions, with no indication of any slackening of the interest. Mr. West gave an appealing sermon, which made a profound impression.

It is announced that the speaker at the men's mass meeting next Sunday afternoon will be Prof. Lorenz, of Dayton, who is known as one of the most stirring speakers to men in this section of the state.

CHIEF CANADAY OUTLINES POSITION

"I intend to give this city a business administration. There are no strings on me, and I will show no favors and expect none," said Chief of Police James Canaday, of Xenia, who took his office Saturday morning.

"The laws and ordinances of this city are going to be enforced. There is no use having them if they are simply dead issues on the books," he continued. "I do not mean that I am going to turn the city upside down, or anything of that sort, all in a day," he said. "Everybody is going to get a square deal from me."

VIVID PORTRAYAL OF "QUO VADIS"

History, romance and tragedy are blended into one awe inspiring and thrilling ensemble in George Kleins photo-drama production of Henry Sienkiewicz' justly celebrated story "Quo Vadis" which will be presented at the Palace Theater for the first time Thursday.

This is the most marvelous achievement yet in photo drama and created a sensation at the Astor Theater in New York City, also at Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston where the pictures were presented to enormous crowds at every performance. For scope, magnitude, extravagant splendor and liberality, these pictures have never been equaled and they carry with them an appeal to every community. They entertain and instruct at the same time and accomplish as much for religion as they do for study.

The story of Vinitius' love for the lovely Christian maid Lygia is related with remarkable fidelity and the companion picture of his friend Petronius' great passion for his handsome slave, Eunice, is also faithfully shown. The trials of the early Christian martyrs, the vain and cruel temperament of the wicked tyrant Nero and his courtiers which were so graphically drawn by the author are illustrated on the screen with commendable veracity and even those who have never read the book can comprehend the whole story from the pictures. Episodes that stir the mind to wonder and make the blood surge rapidly around the heart, pictorialized with amazing truth. The gladiator combats, the enariot races, the burning of Rome, the devouring of the Christians by the lions, the marvelous feasts of Nero, the stirring conquest of the wild bull by the giant slave Ursus, the gathering of the Christians in the catacombs and the appearance of the Savior to Peter are all shown with wonderful truth of detail and from a spectacle so stupendous no one can afford to miss it.

GREAT NUMBER OF IMMIGRANTS

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—In his first annual report just made public, W. B. Wilson, Secretary of the Department of the Interior, states that during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, 1,197,872 immigrants came to this country, an increase of 359,720 over the previous year. Of those 986,355 were between 14 and 44 years of age, 147,158 were under 14, and 64,379 were 45 or over. Twenty-six per cent of the aliens admitted were totally illiterate. The bulk of the immigration came from the countries of southern and eastern Europe, only 15 per cent coming from northern and western Europe.

While the immigration increased 43 per cent during the last year, the number of exclusions of arriving aliens increased only 24 per cent. That was due, the report indicates, to the financial and physical inability of the Bureau of Immigration properly to supervise the great number of arriving aliens.

Under existing arrangements of the 6,859 Japanese who applied for admission during the year 88 were excluded.

They then communicated with Mr. Sharp, who is at his home in Ohio, and ascertained that while he is not and would not become a candidate for the place, he would gladly accept it if it were tendered him. Senator Pomerene then made an engagement to see President Wilson tomorrow.

VILLA SAYS WAR IS OVER

Paso, Tex., Feb. 4.—General Villa, when told of President Wilson's decision to raise the embargo on arms and ammunition, said: "I want to thank the United States for its action. Wilson's decision does him honor, for it does justice to Mexico. With plenty of ammunition at the command of the Constitutionals the revolution will sweep Huerta's forces from Mexico in a short while. The war is practically over. We could have been in Mexico City by now if we had possessed all the ammunition we needed," he said "as it was, we had to capture most of our weapons and cartridges from the federales."

United States border patrol troops will remain stationed along the international line when the embargo is raised by the president, according to General Hugh L. Scott. He says that the troops will be kept on the border to prevent marauding parties from crossing and to prevent any invasions of Mexico by armed forces.

PROTESTS AGAINST USE OF FIREARMS

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4.—Protest against the use of firearms and the employment of armed guards and private detectives in labor disputes and strikes, was made by Secretary W. B. Wilson, of the Department of Labor, in his first annual report submitted to President Wilson. He recommends that Congress enact legislation "within its constitutional limitations to regulate this business in the interest of public peace and order."

"The use of firearms," said Secretary Wilson, "in a species of private warfare in connection with labor strikes, calls for serious consideration. Groups of men on both sides, without military or police authority for it, have used firearms with fatal effect in the coal strike in southern Colorado. These arms and the ammunition have doubtless been procured through interstate commerce; and many of the armed men are said to have been imported into Colorado from other states through a business concern engaged commercially across state lines in supplying corporations with an armed and trained private soldiery or police in numbers running into hundreds and even thousands."

A Musical Club of High Standards

The Cecilians, Washington's well known musical club, celebrated its 25th anniversary yesterday. It is seldom that a club can look back upon a quarter of a century of more telling work than can this organization.

While the personnel of the club has changed and but few of the charter members are now enrolled, the same purpose, the same high standards which led to its organization, have inoculated all subsequent members, and it is today a club composed of Washington women who are leading musical artists of our city, and which has played a large part in raising musical standards.

From its first organization the Cecilians have devoted themselves to musical culture for the town as well as for themselves. Their club work has been devoted to the finest composers and their programs culled from the world of music the choicest gems of the masters. They have been absolutely intolerant of anything but the best.

While improving their own talents, they also lent every effort to the encouragement of good music in our city; to the bringing of genuine artists to the concert platform, and to a criticism, which, while kindly, extolled the fine and eliminated the ordinary.

Once or twice a year this club has invited outside guests and presented a program which has never failed to be in the nature of a concert treat and has given to those not having had the advantage of musical study an incentive to cultivate the love of good music.

Washington has been very proud of the wide reputation she has had as a musical center and the talented artists that have achieved fame by no means merely local.

It has been the privilege and pleasure of this club to give added prestige to her musical renown.

The Day of Practical Religion

There seems to be a spirit of practical religion abroad in the land—the kind of religion that is "up and doing", rather than a passive religion given to retrospection and meditation.

There is hardly a paper published but calls attention to some project of helpfulness for a cause or for humanity.

This week in the city of St. Louis, Mo., plans were completed by a committee of "The Men and Millions Movement" to enter into a campaign to raise six million dollars for missionary work. R. A. Long, of Kansas City, has pledged $1,000,000 on condition that $5,000,000 will be raised for the same purpose.

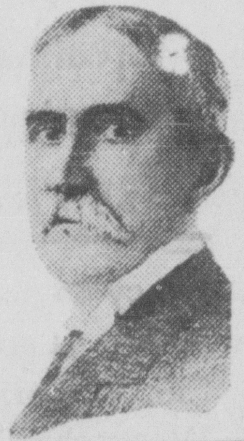

Right at home in our capital city of Columbus, "The Brotherhood" convention has been lending mighty impetus to the Forward Movement.

Campaigns for righteousness, for civic betterment, for moral uplift, are in active operation wherever the eye turns.

It is the day of active reform, of practical religious revival and the spirit is contagious, sweeping over our country with menace to the quiet selfishness which much prefers to be left undisturbed.

Taft Never Would Have Recognized Huerta's Claim to Presidency

By FRANKLIN MACVEAGH, Secretary of Treasury in Taft Administration

I BELIEVE that President Wilson has been entirely RIGHT IN REFUSING TO RECOGNIZE HUERTA. President Taft, had he continued in office, would never have recognized Huerta's claim to the presidency of Mexico. I am convinced that I express the sentiment of the entire Taft administration in saying that.

BEYOND THAT I CAN SAY ONLY THAT IT IS THE DUTY OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TO BACK THE PRESIDENT IN HIS POLICY. IT IS IN NO SENSE A PARTISAN MATTER. TOO MUCH IS AT STAKE IN THIS COUNTRY'S DEALINGS WITH FOREIGN NATIONS TO PERMIT OF THE SLIGHTEST TINGE OF PARTISANSHIP IN ANY GOOD CITIZEN'S ATTITUDE.

Wilson has adopted a well defined policy toward Mexico. He appears to be following that policy consistently. All the powers seem to be working in aid of his plan of waiting. The part of the people of this nation is to support their president.

Poetry For Today

THE OLDER SISTER.

All the days o' my life I've sat by while the others
Was havin' their fun;
I was oldest, you see, of the sisters and brothers—
'Twas me that looked on While I helped with the washin' and
ironin' and bakin'.
The mendin' maybe;
Or I'd have to run up 'cause the
baby was wakin'.
And cryin' for me;
When the girls and the lads would
be strollin' come May-time
In the moonlight,
With a joke how they'd be a sad
sight for the daytime.
Their love-locks turned white
With the fall o' the blossoms the orchard was sheddin'.
I waited inside!
Oh, the nearest I've ever come near
to a weddin'
Was dressin' the bride;
And the nearest to home was the hob
and the oven—
The day's bite and sup;
And the nearest I've come to the
children was lovin'
And takin' 'em up!

Mills Municipal Ownership Bond
Bill Passes House.

HARD BATTLE PRECEDES VOTE

Advocates of the Measure Will Attempt to Have It Restored to Its Original Form by the Senate and
In Conference—State Bank Bill Goes to the Governor—Legislative Review.

Columbus, O., Feb. 4.—After it had been amended almost beyond recognition, the Mills municipal ownership bond bill was passed by the house and sent to the senate, where the Cleveland delegation will attempt to restore it and then try to put the bill through by resort to a conference committee.

It was a clear defeat for the administration, for while Governor Cox did not assume responsibility for the bill, it was admitted by house leaders he did everything he could to bring about the adoption of an amendment restricting the bill to the four cities
now having home rule charters, Cleveland, Dayton, Springfield and Middletown, and such others as may adopt charters, an amendment which it was thought would save the bill.

Mr. Edling of Wayne, a farmer, was selected to offer this amendment, in hopes of carrying the farmer members with him, but they wouldn't have it. A plea by Herbert Bigelow that it would defeat the adoption of the Cincinnati charter by arraying against the charter the public utility interests with a big corruption fund, sealed the fate of the amendment, which was lost by a vote of 50 to 58.

The influence of John F. Kramer of Richland, the strongest personal influence in the house, was shown to be more potent than the state administration of his own party when his amendment, making bonds for purchasing utilities a lien on the utility only and not on the general credit of the municipality, as the bill provided, was adopted by 69 to 39.

There went into it, too, amendments by Mr. Snyder of Hamilton, making mandatory the law permitting the state utilities commission to prescribe a uniform system of accounting for both municipally-owned and privately-owned utilities, and by Mr. Reid of Fayette, inserting the precaution that nothing in the bill should be held to repeal the Smith 1 per cent tax law.

As the bill goes to the senate, bonds to acquire a utility must be redeemed by the earnings of the utility, a condition rendering their sale to bond buyers practically prohibitive. It was said the only way to float a utility issue would be to sell the bonds in small denominations to citizens, who might buy them out of civic pride.

The bill was passed, 83 to 26.

State Bank Bill Passed.

The Guthery house bill, permitting state banks to become members of the federal banking system, was unanimously passed by the senate.
Senator Mooney's amendment denying all banks the right to act as administrators, executors, trustees or registrars of stocks and bonds, was incorporated in the bill. Another amendment, by Senator Moore of Jefferson county, reducing the reserve funds of savings banks from 15 to 10 per cent of their total deposits, was also included in the bill.

The senate by a vote of 19 to 10 reversed a ruling by Lieutenant Governor Greenlund to the effect that the Moore amendment was not germane to the call of the governor.

To repair the failure of the legislature last winter in not surrounding the referendum with proper safeguards, the house passed the Way-sandt bill practically without opposition. The vote was 99 to 2. The bill goes to the governor for approval when the senate concurs in amendments.

Supported by Republican members,
Senator Hudson of Scioto succeeded, by a vote of 22 to 7, in securing an amendment to the school supervision bill providing for uniform textbooks in the grades by the county unit. The county superintendent and the district superintendents are to constitute a commission to prepare uniform texts for the entire county, contracts to be in force for five years. The original bill required only uniform texts in the district unit.

CLARK COUNTY SHERIFF STOPS BAKER MOTOR BUS

Complaint Over Damage to Roads Again Results in the Arrest of Driver of Bus—Fayette County Officials Have Taken No Action on Affair, Although Some Complaint Is Made—Mr. Baker to Furnish Crushed Stone and Place It Upon Roads.

The Baker motor bus, running between Jeffersonville and South Charleston, has been meeting with some opposition at the hands of the Clarke county officials, and Tuesday the driver was again arrested for damaging the roads.

So far no action has been taken by Fayette county officials, although complaint still arises over damage to roads, and the condition of one road became so bad that a different route was chosen to South Charleston. Mr. Baker has purchased quite a large shipment of crushed stone to repair the roads, it is claimed.

Wednesday the bus left Jeffersonville as usual, but, according to report, the Clark county officials state that they will cause the arrest of the driver each day the bus travels the roads while they are in condition to be damaged.

Wednesday's Springfield Sun contains the following article regarding the trouble:

"As the driver of the 9,000-pound motor truck which runs between South Charleston and Jeffersonville started on his regular trip yesterday, he found himself in the grip of the law as represented by Deputy Sheriff 'Cas' Drake. Violation of the state law pertaining to the weight of vehicles which operate on a public highway was the reason for his detention.

"Sentiment on the question of whether or not the truck is to operate is about evenly divided at South Charleston, some maintaining that the damage done by the vehicle far exceeds its value to the community, while others maintain that damage is practically negligible quantity. Enforcement of the highway law throughout the state has depended in the past largely upon the state of the road, and the demand of local public opinion.

"The driver of the South Charleston-Jeffersonville motor truck was arrested a short time ago and his trial before Mayor Erwin set for Tuesday. George W. Baker, owner of the South Charleston-Springfield Traction company which operates the truck, said that if the county commissioners and the trustees of

Madison township would view the road and see the car in operation and find that the running of the car damaged the road he would stop running the car in bad weather.

"On the strength of that statement Prosecutor Ballard asked that the case be continued until February 9 at 2 o'clock so that the trustees and commissioners could view the road and see the car in operation.

"Today's difficulty makes a total of four different cases against Baker, involving a total fine, if the maximum is assessed on each count, of $200. Baker claims that the car does not damage the road, while the people along the road claim that the use of this car is practically destroying one of the finest pikes in the country."

FORGERS FORCED TO LEAVE THE CITY

John Curtis and Leonard Wilson, the two colored men from Baltimore, who forged a check for $2.50 in this city Saturday night, and who later gave themselves up to the chief of police, were arraigned before Mayor Coffey late Tuesday afternoon, and readily entered pleas of guilty to the charge placed against them.

As the one whose name was used on the check, and the one who cashed it did not care to prosecute the two offenders, Mayor Coffey decided that he would save the county the heavy cost of trying the pair, and he gave them a suspended sentence and ordered them out of the city at once.

They lost no time in moving, and were kept under the surveillance of the police until they were outside the city limits.

NO TRACE OF THE POSTOFFICE ROBBERS

So far no further trace of the yeggs who cracked the safe of the Jamestown postoffice Monday night has been found.

It is believed the crooks were from Columbus, and that they may yet be apprehended while trying to dispose of the stamps in that city. The Columbus officials have been notified to make a search for the yeggs.

Final checking up of the stamps and money stolen places the value of stamps at $300 and the money at $50.

POLICE FORCE TO DON HELMETS

Within a short time the Washington police force will be wearing the regulation police helmets, a thing which has not been done in this city for several years.

The matter of using helmets was brought to the attention of Chief Moore by Safety Director Dial.

Washington is one of the few cities in Ohio where the police have not worn the regulation helmet, and the claim it made that dignity is added by wearing helmet and uniform as all regular policemen are forced to do in the larger cities.

The claim has been made by some previous officers that a policeman in a city this size can work to better advantage when he is garbed much the same as an ordinary citizen.

and the Constitutionalists will now have full access to the supply of arms and ammunition in markets on this side of the Rio Grande. Steps already have been taken by the Constitutionalists to start the flow of war munitions across the border.

The immediate effect of the president's action probably will be more widespread disorder and greater bloodshed in Mexico, especially in the northern states, but as viewed here it also marks a decided step toward the final overthrow of Huerta.

The president's order will tend to hasten the crisis in the Mexican situation. It would cause no surprise if the resentment of Huerta leads him immediately to hand Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American charge, his passports. The president in promulgating the order made it clear that he was actuated chiefly by the conviction that the present prohibition against shipments of munitions of war to the Constitutionalists stood in the way of establishing orderly and lawful government in the southern republic.

By many here it is believed that the next logical step of the Wilson administration will be a formal recognition of the Carranza government, provided the rebel leader's followers are able to establish themselves in Mexico City.

President's Statement.

This was the statement issued by the president:

"The executive orders under which the exportation of arms and ammunition into Mexico is forbidden was a departure from the accepted practices of neutrality—a deliberate departure from those practices under a well-considered joint resolution of congress—determined upon in circumstances which have now ceased to exist. It was intended to discourage incipient revolts against the regularly constituted authorities of Mexico. Since that order was issued the circumstances of the case have undergone a radical change.

"There is now no constitutional government in Mexico and the existence of this order hinders and delays the very thing the government of the United States is now insisting upon, namely, that Mexico shall be left free to settle her own affairs and as soon as possible put them upon a constitutional footing by her own force and counsel. The order is therefore rescinded."

AMERICANS FLEE

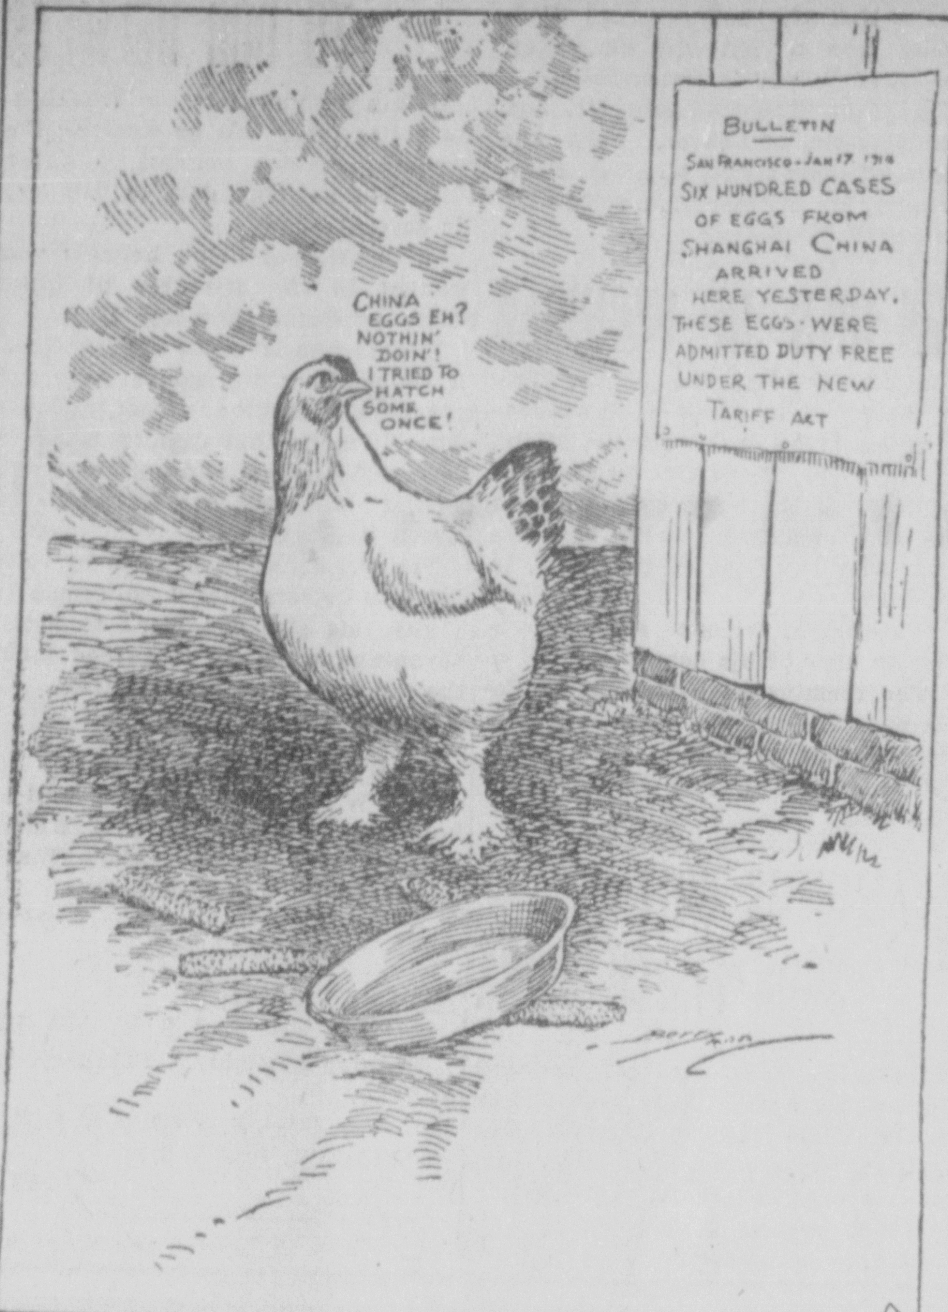

Mexico City, Feb. 4.—Many of the Americans resident here, on learning of President Wilson's decision to raise the embargo on the exportation of arms from the United States to Mexico, left the capital for the eastern coast. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, charge d'affaires of the American embassy, was instructed to acquaint foreign friends of the action of the Washington government, but he was not told to break the news to Provisional President Huerta, whose notification came from the Mexican embassy at Washington.

President Huerta and his cabinet were silent on the lifting of the embargo, though the admission was made at the palace that the news of President Wilson's contemplated action had been received. "What difference will it make?" Huerta asked several days ago when rumors were current that President Wilson planned such action. "The rebels have less money than I have to purchase arms and ammunition."

YELLOWSTONE PARK LARGEST IN EXISTENCE

The Yellowstone National Park is a public pleasure ground maintained by the United States government for the enjoyment of the people and the brown bears of the nation.

The park is typically American because of its size. It is the largest park open to the public anywhere. Many nations could not have a park of this size unless they borrowed some territory from their neighbors. It has about 3,500 square miles, and is not fenced in. This is carelessness of course and leads to some trouble, but the government has never had time to dig post holes.

The Yellowstone Park is situated in the northwest corner of Wyoming, about 125 miles from the center of population, including the Pullman fare. One might think from its inaccessibility that it was a postoffice, but in this case the government has some excuse. The park is where it is because it was impossible to move the scenery of which it is composed to some more centrally located spot.

Scenery and natural curiosities are the strong points of the Yellowstone park. It contains several mountain ranges, a plateau, a large number of canyons, a large lake, a 300-foot waterfall and a magnificent collection of geysers. In fact the park has a monopoly of geysers in this country, and geysers lovers who do not like the price of admission are at liberty to jump off the dock.

The Yellowstone park is 11,000 feet high in some spots and in others reaches so far down that the water in the springs is red hot and smells of sulphur. Watching the geyser throw water at the dog star, boiling eggs in the mud pots and escaping from the tame bear, catamounts, mountain lions and rattlesnakes are the favorite occupations of the tourists. Guns are not allowed in the park, and the bears and buffalo are so tame that they will frequently walk up to a shivering stranger and attempt to borrow a chew of tobacco from him.

The Yellowstone park has the grandest and wierdest scenery on this continent, and if it were New York the government could make millions by charging admission. It also contains another great American curiosity—good roads. Automobileists who have traveled mostly in Illinois and Missouri frequently go to the park to see these roads alone. George Fitch in Cleveland Leader.

Regular meeting of Crusade Castle, Knights Golden Eagle, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. A full attendance is desired.

Better Than Calomel

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets. These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

EXCLUSION AMENDMENT IS RECALLED

Washington, Feb. 4.—As a result of influence brought to bear by President Wilson and his advisers, the danger of Japanese exclusion legislation was avoided for the present. The house by an overwhelming vote recalled the amendment which it incorporated Monday in the Burnett immigration bill providing for exclusion of Asiatics, including the Japanese.

Republicans joined with Democrats in pleading with the house to ignore the exclusion question, in order that the administration might proceed with its diplomatic negotiations with some hope that the differences between the two countries would be adjusted. The house thereupon reversed itself, and it is predicted that as a result no effort will be made in congress at this time to bring the exclusion question forward.

LITTLE STORIES ABOUT OHIO

By CHARLES E. CHIDESTER

OHIO WOMEN ARE MILITANT.

Modern English militant suffragette methods of combating distasteful theories were employed by Ohio women as early as 1858

In that year Berlin Heights, Erie county, was attracting state and nation-wide attention as a Socialistic or Free Love society center. Three separate and distinct communities were established, each with official publication. Frank Barry was issuing "The Age of Freedom," in 1858, when, through some of his utterances he incurred the displeasure of 20 women in the village who, waiting until Barry had arrived at the postoffice with an edition to be mailed, set upon him, seized his pack and burned the entire issue on the public square.

The Berlin Center community was one of many which made Ohio the testing ground of Socialistic and Communist colonies.

In 1844 the Fouriarte association was formed, brought three tracts of land on the Ohio in Clermont, and put up buildings. After two years the members were no better off and the association in debt and it dissolved.

A spiritualistic community rose out of the ruins of its predecessor.
John A. Wattles was at its head with 100 followers. In 1847 a great flood inundated its buildings and 17 lives were lost ruining the enterprise.

One of the most successful was the communistic village of Utopia, organized by Henry Jernagman, one of the Fourierites, on Utopian principles. The people lived happily for some time.

The Zoar community, at Zoar, founded by Germans, existed up to about 10 years ago, when the younger generation became dissatisfied and wrecked the institution's ideals and purposes.

In Social Circles

The beautiful home of Mrs. Nina Craig was the scene of a brilliant gathering of musicians and music lovers Tuesday afternoon when the "Cecilians" celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary by presenting a choice program to a hundred invited guests.

Mrs. Eva Craig, president of the club, extended gracious welcome, expressing the pleasure with which the Cecilians set aside one of their meetings in recognition of the twenty-fifth milestone.

The beautiful program met with the enthusiastic approval of the guests, who indulged in hand clapping to an extent unusual in a feminine audience.

Mrs. Winnie W. Shoop sang a group of "Bird Songs", comprising "The Wood Pigeon, the Starling, the Yellow Hammer, the Wren, the Owl," by Lizzie Lehman. Mrs. Shoop's lovely, sympathetic voice brought out all the beauties of this unique group of songs, dainty, piquant and gay.

Mrs. Fannie Ballard gave to a piano solo, "Ich Liebe Dich", Greig, most artistic interpretation, stamped with the distinctive personality and delicacy of touch, which are always features of her renditions.

Two charming songs were contributed by Miss Edith Gardner. The first, "O, Say Have You Seen Her", Caracciolo, was brilliant in style, showing the range and flexibility of the singer's voice, and the second, "A Song My Mother Sang," replete with plaintive strains, and sung with exquisite tenderness.

A quartet of the club's vocal artists sang a choral ballad, "The Lake of the Dismal Swamp," Alexander Matthews.

Mrs. Nina Craig prefaced it with a graphic description of the "Lake of the Dismal Swamp," its Indian legends and poetry, with their primitive understanding of the triumph of good over hate.

The choral ballad was sung by Mesdames Lona G. Hugney, Lillie Davis, sopranos; Mesdames Mary Burgett, Ida Pine, contraltos; Mrs. Sina L. Murray, accompanist.

It is an amazingly difficult musical work, written in minor key, primitive and word in melody, with the ever recurring Indian note, and required an unusual amount of study to bring it to the artistic rendition, given by the singers.

Mrs. Hugney was suffering from a severe cold, which, however, did not prevent her brilliant soprano from rising superbly in the high notes. The ballad worked up to an effective climax, embodying the mystery of the lake, the spirit of the morass, and the tragedy of the lovers, floating forever in their white canoe by the light of the firefly lamp.

The music was peculiar in quality, but had in it much of beauty.

Mrs. Murray had very difficult piano work, both in an ambitious prelude, interweaving the motif, with its weird melodies, and in the accompaniment which gave admirable support to the singers.

The guests lingered in social pleasure after the program.

Hazel Ellison, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Ellison, celebrated her fifth birthday Tuesday afternoon with a delightful children's party. Owing to the rainy afternoon only nine youngsters responded to the invitations, but they had a merry time with music, donkey contest, and games. Toward the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Ellison served dainty refreshments with a beautiful birthday cake, blazing with five candles, in the center of the table.

Miss Pauline West received the prize in the contest. The small hostess received beautiful and useful presents.

There was a good attendance and splendid program Tuesday night at the Browning club, the Department of Household Economics, Miss Clara Thurston, chairman, in charge.

Mrs. Reba Bay treated of "The Prospects for Electrical Cookery," in a very interesting paper.

"Starve the Fly," was the subject of a fine paper, teeming with practical information in regard to the fly as an enemy of health by Mrs. Jennie Bailey.

A third delightful paper was presented by Miss Clara B. Thurston, her subject, "King Mackerel Fishing in Florida."

The club women greatly enjoyed a piano duet, beautifully played by

About six o'clock Wednesday morning a small fire occurred in the double house owned by Mrs. Sharp Davies just east of Lewis street on Market, but the motor fire engine was soon upon the scene and the blaze was soon extinguished.

The fire started on the first floor of the house and burned a place in the floor and along one side of the room, entailing a loss which was adjusted by C. A. Cave for $39. It is supposed that the fire started from brands from an open grate, in which a fire had been kindled the previous day.

Monday of this week the property was sold to B. C. Mace, but the deed had not been drawn up.
